

SEMESTER AT SEA®

The Institute for Shipboard Education C.Y. Tung Scholarship Application Chinese Students

The C.Y. Tung Program in Sino-U.S. Relations is in honor of C.Y Tung, who was instrumental in the founding of Semester at Sea. The curriculum focuses on the socio-cultural, policy and economic interactions between Chinese and Americans to prepare future leaders to better understand each other's cultures and work together for mutual benefit. Students must be working in the area of English (U.S.) studies and are expected to enroll in the course designed for this program and participate in the corresponding field class.
