YOU ARE INVITED!

Join Semester at Sea onboard their floating campus, the MV World Odyssey, for the Spring 2019 site visit.

SITE VISIT OVERVIEW

January 2, 2019
- Embark the MV World Odyssey
- SP19 Faculty & Staff Welcome Reception
- Participate in the Study Abroad Advisor Open Ship Event

January 3, 2019
- Observe Faculty & Staff orientation
- Meet with ISE Advisors

January 4, 2019
- Observe faculty & staff orientation
- Assist with SP19 Bon Voyage Parent Reception
- Sail overnight to Ensenada, Mexico

January 5, 2019
- Assist with SP19 student embarkation
- Option 1: Disembark & watch the ship sail to Honolulu, HI. Evening transport back to San Diego via ISE Shuttle
- Option 2: Sail to Honolulu, HI (limited space available)

January 6-11, 2019
- Participate in student orientation, attend classes & community events, meet with administrative staff, & more

January 12, 2019
- Attend an optional Semester at Sea Field program (if space available)
- Disembark

WHILE ON BOARD
- Tour the ship
- Attend Faculty & Staff orientation
- Meet with voyage deans
- Assist staff on embarkation day

LEARN ABOUT
- Health & Safety
- In-Country Program Overview
- Academics & teaching at sea
- Global Studies curriculum
- Library, IT, & Registrar
- Student life at sea
- Student orientation

There is no charge to participate in the site visit; however, you will have to budget for round-trip transportation to and from the ship, cost incurred off the ship, or items purchased onboard.

Our desired outcome is that you will leave with a better understanding of the academic caliber of the program, the true value of a global comparative education, and a better familiarity with our shipboard campus. It is expected that you will remain active participants.

ONLINE REGISTRATION CLOSES 12/7/2018

Please note: This site visit program is only open to study abroad professionals. Significant others and/or family members are not permitted to attend.